

Sterling Hill Mining Museum

Declaration

Mining operations, whether active or inactive, open pit or underground, can be dangerous. Unforeseen/unpredictable and uncontrollable situations/circumstances may be encountered that can cause serious personal injury or death.

Hold Harmless Agreement for Minor Children

I, _____, acknowledge that I fully understand the risk involved and the potential for injury and/or death as described above.

I agree to be fully responsible for my actions, safety, and welfare at all times while on the premises/property owned or controlled by the Sterling Hill Mining Museum.

I certify that any minor children under my care and supervision are over seven (7) years of age, and that I will be totally responsible for their safety and their actions at all times. I further certify that I am their parent or guardian and have full legal right to take this responsibility.

I further agree, without reservation, to hold harmless the Sterling Hill Mining Museum, its directors, officers, employees, volunteers, or any other persons connected with the Museum, from any and all liability or responsibility concerning my actions, safety, or welfare. Under no circumstances will I institute any legal action, either civil or criminal, against the Sterling Hill Mining Museum, its directors, officers, employees, volunteers, or any other persons connected with the Museum.

In addition, I will be solely responsible for any injuries I, or children under my supervision, may sustain while on the premises/property owned or controlled by the Sterling Hill Mining Museum.

I, _____, stipulate that I read, write, and understand the English language, that I have read and comprehend the above document, that I enter into this hold harmless agreement of my own free will, and that I intend to honor all aspects and conditions contained therein.
